

OFFICE OF C. T. GARLAND,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW,

No. 617 La. Ave., bet. Sixth and Seventh Sts.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 5th 1875.

My Dear Mr. Garrison:

I send you the Washington Chronicle with your much valued letter of the 1st inst. contained therein. I regret to see that the printer^s made one or two mistakes in setting up your letter. They made quite a number in setting up that of Mr. Phillips. I should have read the proof myself but that the Chronicle is usually very accurate in this respect.

The indications are not favorable just now that the present session of Congress will be signalized by the passage of an adequate Civil Rights Bill. Congressmen seem to be groping in the dark, and but faint hopes can be entertained that they will avail themselves of the golden opportunity now offered of settling the Southern question. — Yours Very Truly
C. T. Garland
